

June 27, 2002

Source: The Hindu

Avestha Gengraine's achievement

Avestha Gengraine Technologies have been rated among the top five life sciences companies for its business plans. Its vision document was given top rating due to the problems it sought to address market size, competitive environment, management team expertise and customer/ strategic partnerships. The business plan was presented at TiEcon 2002 held in California recently.